Claim Objections

Claims 19-23 are objected to because of the following informalities: in claim 19, the term "electrical" recited at line 1 should be replaced by "electric" for being consistent. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 26 is also objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate of claim 25. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-25 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,717,118. This is a double patenting rejection.

It is noted that the amended claim 26 of the instant application is not substantially the same scope as the original claim 27 (i.e., being renumbered as 26 instead of 27). However, if claim 26 was intended to have the same scope as noted in the original claim numbered 27, claims 1-26 are still deemed to be rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-26 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,717,118. This is a double patenting rejection.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: Pilavdzic et al (US 6,781,100), Jaakkola Jyrki (US 4,948,466), and Auguste Leduc Henri et al (US 2,163,993).
